Re-Tail Boutique to move back to LPC Humane Society Thrift Store

Durango, CO – La Plata County Humane Society (LPCHS) announces the closure of the second location, the Re-Tail Boutique, located at 450 S. Camino del Rio, Suite 202 set for Saturday, January 26th. The Re-Tail Boutique will be moving to the Humane Society Thrift Store, located at 1111 S. Camino del Rio, just north of Walmart. After a year of business, the Humane Society has decided to bring the Re-Tail Boutique home to the main location. This move will facilitate the ease of shopping, donating and supporting Durango's #1 Thrift Store.

"We are all very excited to bring back your high quality and awesome donations! We really appreciate all of your support of the Re-Tail Boutique, and will continue to strive to bring in the most value for your donated goods." – stated Guthrie Hardesty, Director of the Thrift Store and Re-Tail Boutique.

La Plata County Humane Society is committed to keeping your dollars and goods in our community. Please continue to shop, donate, and adopt at our local non-profit, where all the proceeds generated support our mission to enhance and protect the lives of the homeless animals.
